The West Valley City Council and West Valley City Manager Wayne Pyle are pleased to announce the pending appointment of a new West Valley City Police Chief.

On Tuesday, February 20, 2018, it is anticipated that the city council will ratify the selection of interim Police Chief Colleen Jacobs, formerly Colleen Nolen, as the official chief of West Valley City Police. Chief Jacobs has served as Interim Police Chief since the retirement of former Chief Lee Russo on September 8, 2017.

Chief Jacobs has been in law enforcement for 21 years. She has worked for the West Valley City Police Department her entire career. During her career she has served in patrol, investigations, narcotics, grants, Internal Affairs and as Deputy Chief. In 2012, Chief Jacobs had the opportunity to attend the FBI National Academy, session 249. Chief Jacobs is a Utah native. She graduated from Tooele High School and earned her Bachelor of Science from Weber State University in Criminal Justice with a Law Enforcement emphasis and a minor in Family Studies.

Chief Jacobs and City Manager Wayne Pyle will be available for interviews regarding the appointment on February 20, 2018 at 3:30pm in the lobby of West Valley City Hall.

It is anticipated that the appointment of Chief Jacobs will be ratified later in the evening at the regular meeting of the West Valley City Council.
