Stonebridge Golf Club

Named after the rustic red rock bridges that help define the course, Stonebridge Golf Club features 27 Holes of Golf, divided into three challenging nines each measuring nearly 3,600 yards from the professional tees. It is one of the longest and most water-laden courses in Utah. However, if you're not a long hitter, there are several other teeing areas for golfers of all ages & abilities to enjoy.

The Ridge Golf Club

Originally known as West Ridge, The Ridge opened in May of 1991. Construction of the Mountain View Corridor, a UDOT project, required land which was home to 5 of our holes on the Back 9. Not wanting to piece together a golf course that did not fit with the remaining 13 holes, an agreement was made with the state to construct a new course. Today, it is a new re-designed course with beautiful views of the entire Salt Lake valley.
