GENERAL PLAN/ZONE CHANGE INFORMATION SHEET

The adopted West Valley City General Plan is the City's guiding policy for land use related decisions. The Plan's purpose is to coordinate and bring order to new and existing development in West Valley City by establishing goals for development. The Plan is not meant to be a static document; reevaluation of the concepts and recommendations are considered continually. Although reevaluation of the Plan is encouraged, there must be significant, compelling evidence submitted which would justify a change to a future land use designation. You are encouraged to read the adopted General Plan before making your application and should refer to the City's goals and land use policies to justify your request. The planning staff will assist you in preparing your application. Zone change requests should be made in accordance with the General Plan recommendations. If the General Plan is different, a change may be requested in both the General Plan and zoning at the same hearing.

PUBLIC HEARINGS

The General Plan/Zone change process involves public hearings before the West Valley City Planning Commission and the City Council. After the hearing before the Planning Commission, the Commission makes a recommendation to the City Council which has final authority to amend the General Plan and/or change a zoning classification. Both the Planning Commission and the City Council will evaluate your zone change proposal for conformity with the adopted General Plan. You should anticipate at least a 90 day time frame before a final decision is made. The reason for this time frame is that notices are required for the public hearings before the Planning Commission and the City Council meet.

The Planning Commission generally meets the second and fourth Wednesday of the month at 4:00 p.m. in the City Council Chambers, West Valley City Hall, 3600 Constitution Boulevard. You must submit your application at least three weeks in advance of the hearing date. You or your appointed representative must be present at the public hearing to explain your case and answer any questions. A study session/field trip, open to the public, is held on Wednesday at 3:30 p.m. one week prior to the public hearing, however, no public comment can be taken at this meeting. Typically, the Planning Commission will hold a public hearing, evaluate all the information and make a recommendation to the West Valley City Council.

A public hearing will automatically be scheduled before the City Council after the required public notice is complied with. Where a Development Agreement is involved, this agreement must be prepared by the City's Legal Department before the General Plan/zone change is scheduled for a City Council Hearing. Notification of this hearing will come from the City Administration office. City Council meetings are held on Tuesdays at 6:30 p.m. If the City Council approves your request, the General Plan amendment will be filed and the zone change, if requested, will be effective upon posting. This usually occurs within one week after the City Council decision.

APPLICATION CHECKLIST

In preparing your application be as detailed and specific as possible. Applications with incomplete or inadequate information will not be accepted. There is a filing fee to help defray the costs of advertising and staff review. The specific fee is listed on the application. This is a non-refundable fee which must be submitted at the time of application. Plans required for Planning must be submitted electronically. Consult staff on how to submit plans.

WEST VALLEY CITY

Planning & Zoning

For a complete application, the following should be submitted:

1. A completed application, including property owner affidavit.
2. A letter outlining the request.
3. A document verifying proof of ownership. The current property owner must be the applicant but may designate an authorized agent to act in his behalf. Proof of ownership can include a County Recorder's printout indicating ownership with corresponding parcel number, a Warranty Deed, quit Claim Deed or tax notice.
4. Property address and legal description. If the proposed zoning boundary follows existing property lines, a legal description can be obtained from the deed, tax notice, or County Recorder's Office. If the proposed zoning boundary does not follow existing property lines, a legal description describing the proposed zoning boundary must be prepared by a licensed surveyor or engineer.
5. Property plat (Sidwell Map) from the Salt Lake County Recorder's Office, 2001 South State, Suite N1600, 385-468-8145. Your property should be clearly marked in red.
6. A concept plan. A concept plan is a generalized plan drawn to scale that shows property boundaries, proposed uses, proposed lots, and proposed roads.
7. A development agreement proposal for residential developments. A development agreement "means a voluntary agreement between the City, using its legislative judgment, and a property Owner or developer relating to a proposed Development within the City that shall run with the land and be binding upon all successors and assigns of the property Owner or developer" (7-1-103(88)). Items to be addressed in a development agreement include, but are not limited to, housing size, architectural features, exterior materials, streetscapes, and landscaping. Where available, building elevations are helpful.
8. A traffic impact study prepared by a registered traffic engineer is required for projects with 100 or more proposed dwelling units in the RM Zone.

Please answer the questions listed on the application as completely as possible and provide additional justification for the proposed change. The information you submit will be the basis for review by the Planning Commission and the City Council. Be as complete as possible. If you have any questions please ask for assistance by calling 801-963-3282, Planning and Zoning.
